Thank You for another great Tax Season

Hello Friends and Clients!

Well it's my 21st tax season and it's been delightful to serve you all again. Some of you have been with me for 2 decades now and what a compliment that is. The deadline's officially passed Tuesday April 30th, 2019 but I can still fit you in even if you're late. Now for my favorite part of tax season; the warm weather that comes right after it. We in Alberta had a blizzard Sunday April 28th which shut much of the province down for a day but since we're parched the last minute moisture was most welcome especially in farming country. Hopefully it'll stay warm until the quading season starts May long weekend. I am already planning the summer and annual vacation with friends in August to Vancouver Island. In the meantime, I'm already looking forward to exploring the woods and my favorite "steak on a stick" over an open fire near the Rocky Mountains with friends for the Victoria Day long weekend.

Are you worried that CRA is clamping down on late filers and making it harder to put off? Tax time is never easy and that's why I am here to help you through that annual season which most Canadians find challenging----all year round. If you "Are Really, Really Behind on Your Taxes", no worries; I can help. Lastly, a "Happy Mother's Day" to all you Moms☺-without you, we couldn't be here!

Always at your tax service,

Neel
